Mr. Kidd is a well-known club man of San Francisco and his partner, Joe Haden, is an old-time theatrical man of the same city. They will aim to conduct their hotel in a first-class manner and make it one of the attractive resorts of this valley.

Fritz Holland, who fought a fierce twenty-round battle at Sacramento on the 19th inst. with Mantell, was here the fore part of the week a guest at the Bellevue Hotel. Holland was awarded the decision at the end of the twentieth round, but by the looks of his face he must have had a rough time of it. If the other fellow looks any worse than Fritz does he sure must present a beautiful sight.

ARCHIBALD MCKIVER.

El Verano, Jan. 24, 1912.

KNIGHTS OF THE ROYAL ARCH

Grand Valiant Commandar T. W. Roulo Says It is Not a Political Organization and Tells of its Aims and Purposes

That the Knights of the Royal Arch, as an organization is not political in its nature is the declaration of Grand Valiant Commander Roulo, who was in this city several days last week. Mr. Roulo asserts that the mission of the organization is purely that of uplifting the liquor business. When asked by the editor of the INDEX-TRIBUNE as to the aims of the organization Mr. Roulo submitted the following explanatory statement:

"As to the objects and purposes of the Knights of the Royal Arch I desire at the outset to disabuse the public mind of the impression that some people have, that the Knights of the Royal Arch is a political organization. Such, however, is not the fact, and one of the principal objects of the order is to keep the liquor dealer out of politics. Of course, we desire that every liquor dealer be a public spirited citizen; that he take a general interest in the political affairs of his city, state and nation and that he exercise his right of franchise, just as every citizen should, but therein he must be a free agent just as every citizen should be. The saloon in politics, however, is discountenanced and discouraged by the Knights of the Royal Arch for we consider politics to be the greatest danger that threatens the interest of the wholesaler, the brewer and the retailer.

"Frequently when the forces that are opposed to our business are at a loss for a legitimate argument the cry is made that the Knights of the Royal Arch is a political machine and a standing menace to good government. We have, however, a loftier purpose than politics, and our Order is no more a political machine than is a chamber of commerce, a board of trade, a labor union or a grocers' association.

"We seek and so propose to elevate the liquor business as to remove all legitimate arguments against it. We realize that the rights to sell liquor is a privilege that should be entrusted only to men who are qualified to possess that right; we believe that often men are licensed to conduct saloons who should never be granted licenses; and we realize that occassionally a saloon is so conducted as to be a menace to the community. It is our purpose to correct and to assist in the correction of these evils. We believe our purpose to be a laudible one and that our efforts are tending toward better government.

"Sanctioned by federal, state, county and city laws, the liquor business in its every branch is as legitimate as any other business which is sanctioned by the law, and the fact must be brought home to the whole people, if the true mission of the Knights of the Royal Arch is to be fulfilled.

"The Knights of the Royal Arch stands pledged to exact compliance with every law made for the regulation of the liquor business and stands for the elimination of every thing or influence which in any way conflicts with the efforts being made for the uplifting thereof.

"The only mission in politics which will be countenanced by the Knights of the Royal Arch is composed in two words—good government.

"In legislation and in government we ask for no favor nor special privileges. We ask only that the affairs of government be conducted by broad-minded citizens who will recognize the liquor business as a legitimate commercial business, who will regulate it properly, and who will deem those engaged in it as entitled to the same protection under the law as is accorded to those engaged in other vocations.

"In conclusion and to summarize, I would say that the Knights of the Royal Arch is not in politics; that is a fraternal organization with a mission to fulfill—a mission that stands for the uplifting of the liquor traffc and the putting of it on a plane with other legitimate business.

"To this end it is our desire to co-operate with the law officers everywhere in the enforcement of all laws regulating the liquor traffic. Our association is always at the disposal of the authorities in the enforcement of the laws against those who having been licensed show themselves unworthy to possess a license. We are in favor of proper and suitable regulation of the traffic; and welcome every proper and suitable regulation that will protect the public interest and welfare and still be fair to the traffic. Our order stands for the enforcement of the law and for granting of licenses only to those who are willing to comply with the law."

The Vulcan Insurance Company

It may prove interesting to a number of Sonoma people who put good money into what seems a very bad venture a year or two ago, we refer to the Vulcan Insurance Co. of Oakland, are in a fair way to lose every cent of their investment. The directors of the concern are warring among themselves over the mismanagement of the concern, the general manager of which at the outset was instrumental in voting himself a salary of $10,000 a year for five years. The directors also voted $85,000 of the company's stockholders good money to two of its promotors, who had the handling of the stock. Suits are now pending aganist the directors for restitution in both cases. It is said that several thousand dollars was put into the concern in this town alone.

Mrs. W. H. Bridges Applies For Divorce

Mrs. Minnie Bridges of El Verano commenced divorce proceedings against her husband, W. H. Bridges, in the Superior Court of this county Monday. The offending hubby deserted his family about a year ago and went to San Francisco. Bridges conducted a harness shop on Broadway in this city for two years and the venture proving unprofitable he pulled up stakes one morning and left the concern to his creditors.

Wm. MacIntosh Seriously Injured

Wm. MacIntosh, residing on his farm near Vineburg, was thrown from his horse last Sunday and seriously injured At latest accounts he was improving under the care of his physician and if no complications set in he will be up and around shorty, as no bones were broken.

To the People of Sonoma Valley

People in old Sonoma will soon find out that they have a first-class repair shop for shoes and harness, when they deal with the Shoe Hospital on Broadway. This is just what has been needed for a number of years. Poor people always had to buy the old shoes from cobblers who are making a living out of a poor class of people. I have ordered some more machines, so in the near future you will save 50c to $1.00 on what you have been paying. I am very thankful to the people of Sonoma for their patronage. It takes very little more work to keep two men busy, and I have to run business so that everything pays. If you are not satisfied, don't stop dealing with me, but give me your reason.

Supervisor Blair Hart was here from Lakeville last Monday.

Rudolph Wagner spent Sunday with his parents Mr. and Mrs. O. Wagner.

Joseph A. Fassler of San Francisco was the guest of Sonoma friends Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Cheney came up from the metropolis Sunday to visit town relatives.

Lawyers Poppe and Sprague attended to legal business at the county seat Monday.

Dr. Frederick Leix made a professional visit to San Francisco last Monday and Tuesday.

A. Beretta, Secretary of the Sonoma Brewing Co., transacted legal business for the company in Santa Rosa on Monday.

Ms. and Mrs. Ed. Gise of Benicia came up from that place on Saturday evening last and remained over until Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Hotz celebrated their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary at their home on Broadway one day last week.

John Steiner, ex-promotor, manager, director and president of the Sonoma Brewing Co., was in Santa Rosa looking after his suit aganist that company and its trusting stockholders.

The benefit ball given by Glen Ellen Parlor of Native Sons last Saturday night in Chauvet Hall was largely attended and a financial success. Quite a neat sum was netted toward its orphan fund.

Mrs. Robt. P. Hill of Eldridge was in Santa Rosa on Monday and took the oath of office as a member of the County Probation Committee of the Juvenile Court, to which she was recently appointed by Judge Seawell.

Mayor M. E. Cummings returned home from Willits last Monday evening where he was called to the bedside of his brother, Train Dispatcher Tom Cumming's, who has been desperately ill for a week but who is now on the road to recovery.

Jos. Keechler, Superintendent of the Sonoma Land Company's ranches at McGill's, was in Santa Rosa on Monday on business connected with his lawsuit against John Steiner and his sureties on a $3,500 note, which he is seeking to collect by foreclosure proceedings aganist the Sonoma Brewing Company.

G. H. Hotz visited Oakland on business Monday and Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrea Barracchi were presented with a baby boy one day last week.

Dr. W. B. Hays autoed to San Rafael the fore part of the week, where he spent two days.

The San Luis School will reopen on Monday, January 29, after a vacation of several weeks.

Wm. H. Daly was here from the metropolis the fore part of the week on business connected with his Sonoma property interests.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Bergman (nee Margaret Peterson) were presented with a baby girl at their home in San Mateo one day last week.

Ed. Clements was treated for severe cut on his arm by Dr. Thomson last Saturday night. The injury was received while playing basket ball in Union Hall.

The contracting firm of J. F. O'Brien & Co., who installed the sewer system in this city, have been the successful bidders for the construction of a sewer in Brannan street between First street and the city front, San Francisco, for the sum of $32,671.25. A number of rival bidders for the work, notably the Healy-Tibbits Co., whose bid was less than $250 above that of the O'Brien people objected to the work being given to the latter on the ground that its bid was not in proper form. This contention, however, was overruled by the Board of Public Works, who awarded the contract as above set forth.

The basket ball game played on Friday evening of last week, between the teams of the Sonoma and Sebastopol High Schools was a close and exciting game from start to finish. It was the first league game played here this season. At the end of the first half the score stood 5 to 9 in favor of the Sonoma boys. Previously Edgar Clements, one of the local team's star players, was badly cut on the arm when he fell aganist a window, which broke. This, of course, crippled the Sonoma five in the second half and Sebastopol scored 11 points, while the former only made 2, so the honor fell to the visiting team.

Local Option and the Sonoma Valley Farmer.

Has it occurred to the farmers of Sonoma Valley what Local Option in this Supervisorial district means to them? This is a question that should be looked into and well pondered over by our horny-handed sons of toil before being misled into ruination by a disappointed and revengeful office seeker, who failing to rule an otherwise prosperous, peaceful and contented people, now seeks to ruin them through the medium of Local Option, which is simply a microbe of Prohibition and its attendant evils.

As already set forth in these columns from time to time, Local Option, should it prevail in this Supervisorial district, will not only visit disaster upon our summer resorts, in which over a million dollars are invested but it will bring ruination upon our merchants and the business interests of our entire valley. With the elimination of our summer resorts, big and little, which is sought through Local Option, this valley would lose its principal business asset. Not only would our merchants and shopkeepers for the most part be put out of business with our summer resort keepers, but the two railroad companies, the electric light and power companies and other public service corporations doing business in this valley would receive so serious a set-back that they would retrogade and cease to become developers in a territory cursed with the evils of Local Option.

Now, here is where our farmers would come in for theirs. With the business interests of this section ruined, the summer traffic of our railway lines all but eliminated and the electric light and power companies crippled through the closing up of our resorts, what will happen to the farmers of Sonoma Valley, who are already overtaxed? Many of these are engaged in the vine and wine industry, who have struggled heroically for years with phylloxera and other vineyard pests. Now, these are menaced with a plague far more insidious and destructive than phylloxera in the shape of Local Option which is now seeking to get a strangle hold in this valley on our vineyardists, winemakers and distillers for the Prohibition cause.

The result would be higher taxes for our farmers, poorer transportation service and a reduction in land values throughout Sonoma Valley of at least 50 per cent. Therefore, we adduce the following counts against Local Option, which is but a forerunner of Prohibition, should our people have the misfortune of having it inflicted upon them:

First—It would close up our hotels and bathing establishments and eliminate Sonoma Valley as a health and pleasure resort. This is not denied by Local Optionist Bigelow, who is the whole show in this Prohibition crusade, and who in fact declares in public print that such is his object.

Second—It will ruin business in Sonoma as well as throughout the entire valley. This the Local Optionists may attempt to deny. But whether admitted or denied, the fact is staring our business men in the face that the summer resort business of this valley is their principal asset and without it many of them must go to the wall.

Third—It will cripple the transportation service of our railroads, particularly that of the Northwestern Pacific Co., which has spent thousands upon thousands of dollars in advertising the beauties of this valley to the annual vacationist. Because, with the elimination of this valley as a health and pleasure resort there will be little passenger traffic over its branch line through this section, and it will be made to suffer loss of business with our home people.

Fourth—Our electric light, power and water companies would also be badly crippled as they are depending in a great measure for support on our summer resorts, from which most of their revenue is derived.

Fifth—It will ruin land values in this valley and put a blight upon our productive vineyards and hopfields which would eventually be wiped out under the withering influence of a fanatical measure that seeks to destroy instead of build up and offers nothing in return to the business man and farmer except financial disaster and ruination.

Must Have Bigelow Up a Tree

The Expositor, the organ of the Prohibitionists, under the caption of "Baying at the Moon," says in its issue of last week. We quote verbatim et literatum:

"The most mournful sound, the most irritating to the nerves, in the category of noises, is that howling of a pack of hounds in the stillness of the night, when there is no discoverable reason for their canine wails. It is then that tongue can scarce utter—so poor is language in a crisis—what the heart would fain express."

High Tragedy---Too Funny For Anything.

Not satisfied with libeling the summer resorts of this valley the Expositor uses its depleted columns to abuse the merchants and business men of both town and valley for withdrawing their patronage from a sheet which by its vicious agitation in favor of Local Option would ruin their business. In its frenzy over loss of patronage it threatens them with a quotation from the illustrious bard of Avon, towit: "Lay on McDuff, and damned be he who first cries out hold enough." This is a defy to mortal combat with a vengence, isn't it? The petulent sheet also invites these merchants to take up its gauntlet and dramatically exclaims: "Step forth, you cowards." Now, this is too funny for anything. But it is a Bigelowesque just the same.

You like to surround yourself with people and things that are bright, clean and snappy.
You like to see a pretty girl neatly dressed—a man well groomed.
You like to see an automobile with pretty lines, fresh paint and shining brass.
Does your car look like that? You would like it to show to the best advantage if you could get results with a minimum expense and effort.
Outside of the paint, the brass work on a car has most to do with its appearance.
Blue Ribbon Metal Polish makes brass work show up to the greatest advantage. It does more—it keeps metal always bright and shining with the least possible expenditure of time, effort and money.
Blue Ribbon coats the metal an invisible film that protects the brass work from the action of the weather. It quickly dissolves tarnish. It produces a remarkably brilliant and lasting lustre.
Use it on your automobile, at your store, in your home. Wherever there is metal to be made beautiful and attractive, Blue Ribbon will be welcomed.
A postal card sent us will bring you a sample free.
Try a quart—only fifty cents. You will find it the best fifty cents you ever spent.

Dr. Burke Must Serve Sentence

Judge Seawell Sustained by Higher Court and Defendant is Denied New Trial.

A dispatch from Sacramento received here just as we are about to go to press says that Judge Sewell's rulings in the case of the People vs. Dr. W. P. Burke, convicted for attempted murder, have been sustained by the higher court and defendant denied a new trial. This means that the aged dynamiter who attempted the life of Lu Etta Smith and her infant at the Burke sanitarium in this county over a year ago must serve a sentence of 14 years in the penitentiary imposed upon him by Judge Seawell.

The decision is a victory for the people, represented by District Attorney Lea, who ably conducted the prosecution, and Judge Emmet Seawell, who more than gave defendant a fair trial.

Cases Continued Monday in the Superior Court

These matters were continued in Judge Seawell's department of the Superior Court Monday :

Wheeler vs. Gray, February 5; Pacific Gas & Electric Co. vs. Corliss Gas Engine Co.; Bertolli vs. Bertolli; Connor vs. Connor; Maclay Co. vs. Meads, et al. to January 29; Catherine Brunk vs. Union Trust Co. San Francisco, to February 23; Potter vs. Crivelli to January 29; Southern Pacific Company vs. Bigelow, to March 23.

Brief Mention.

Disappearance of Young Girl

A dispatch from Oakland under the date of January 25th, has this to say of the sudden disappearance of Miss Pearl Engeldow, a niece of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Goess of this city :

"The relatives of Pearl Engeldow, a 16-year-old girl of 2232 Eighty-fourth avenue, reported her disappearance to the police this morning. The girl has been missing six weeks. According to the report filed with the police, the young women has been in the habit of frequenting the cafes of the city. She is described as good looking, and well developed for her age. She is five feet 2 inches in height, weighs 120 pounds, has dark hair and blue eyes. When she smiles she shows her upper gums. She was dressed in a red sweater, blue skirt and soft black hat. Her parents fear she has fallen into evil hands."

Electrical Storm

Yesterday morning between 5 and 6 o'clock this valley was visited by an electrical storm that made neverous people sit up in bed and take notice. For fully an hour peal upon peal of heavenly artillery was turned loose with an occasional thunderbolt that shook the houses like an earthquake. This was accompanied by vivid flashes of sheet lightning and a deluge of rain which fairly satuarted old mother earth.

Another Clever Capture by Officer Joe Ryan

Indian Bob, wanted by the authorities for stealing a boat and other things from the Sonoma drawbridge, a few weeks ago, was traced to the home of his parents near Sebastopol last Wednesday by Deputy Sheriff Joe Ryan and taken into custody. The offender, who is about sixteen years old, was brought to this place and lodged in the city jail. The officer also recovered the boat and most of the loot.

Celebrated Chef Locates in Our Valley

Mr. Ernest Arbogast, who lately purchased a four-acre tract on the Lubeck place at Schellville, upon which he has erected a fine, handsome home, is one of the best known chefs in the United States. For nineteen years previous to the big earthquake and fire which laid San Francisco low in 1896 Mr. Arbogast was chef of the Palace Hotel. After the fire when the Palace and Fairmount had been rebuilt he was the chef of both the big caravansaries up to a short time ago when he resigned his position to locate in this valley, where with his excellent wife he has taken refuge from the activities of a strenuous business life to enjoy a well-earned rest. During his eventful career as chef of our leading metropolitan hotels Mr. Arbogast has served banquets to seven Presidents of the United States besides catering to many other world-wide celebrities. The gentleman is a brother-in-law of F. Helberg, a pioneer farmer of Schellville.

Yellow Jacket Cadet Notes

The regular meeting of the Yellow Jacket Cadets was held at the Congregational Church on last Monday afternoon.

The attendance was very small. Girls, don't forget to come.

We have another new member on our list. Miss E. Franquelein was voted into our club unanimously.

The Cadets are planning a fine entertainment to be given in Union Hall on February 22. The program will consist of a farce, "Frog Hollow," and musicial selections. A scene from real camp life will be shown also and will wind up with a foil drill by the girls.

It was also decided that candy, coffee and cake would be for sale after the program. The admission will be twenty-five cents. Come and help the girls make this a success. Further details will be given later.

The basket ball manager has received two challenges in the past two weeks from Petaluma to play in that town. We have refused to play them there as their team is supposed to play the return game in Sonoma. The manager has written them to this effect.

Next meeting Monday night. All members are urged to be present.

Y. M. I. Gives Social Dance

The Y. M. I. gave a very enjoyable affair at Woodman's Hall on last Tuesday evening in the shape of a leap year dance. About thirty couple were present and enjoyed dancing until a late hour. Between dances there were several vocal solos by Misses Henrietta Weber and Ramona Granice, Mrs. Lynch and Chas. Cowan.

A sumptuous banquet wound up the affair which was strictly invitational.

LEWIS - O'BRIEN SUIT SUBMITTED.

Judge Seawell, After Hearing the Testimony in the Case, Will Decide on Briefs

The land suit of Lewis vs. O'Brien came to a close last Wednesday after Judge Seawell had taken the testimony of both parties to the suit, the case being submitted to him by the attorneys for both plaintiff and defendant on briefs.

Among the witnesses called for the plaintiff were L. L. Lewis, D. W. Carriger, who testified among other things that he was born in the historic town of Sonoma in 1846; James Fowler, B. F. Campbell, W. W. Fowler, Surveyor John L. Warboys, Fred Brach, W. Wyatt, Sol H. Carriger and W. S. Bishop.

Among those who testified for defendants were R. H. Long, J. B. Reibli, H. A. Hardin, T. J. Maderoni, Mr. Seigrist, Joe Smith. Preston R. Davis, and Thomas B. McNamara.

R. H. Long testified that he had frequently seen cattle belonging to the Carrigers on the O'Brien land and those of the O'Briens on the Carriger land.

Surveyors Davis and McNamara gave testimony concerning surveys and lines between the property.

H. A. Hardin, who was also one of the witnesses, testified that the creek was the dividing line between the property, and that Mr. Carriger had said the fence would be removed.

The preponderance of the testimony seemed to show that the O'Briens had access for many years to the waters of the Carriger creek and that was deemed to be the line. Part of the property was never fenced, only about one-half of it ever having been fenced.

Attorneys James M. Oliver of San Francisco and William F. Cowan represent the plaintiff, and attorneys J. T. Campbell and Ross Campbell appeared for the defendants.

Surprise Party

A surprise party was tendered Messrs. Jas. Maffei and John Picetti, on Thursday evening of last week at the Maffei home. The time was passed in playing games, singing and social converse. At midnight the guests sat down to a sumptuous supper. Among those present were Mrs. A. Yenni, Mrs. A. Pinelli, Mrs. L. Maffei, Misses Mary Pinelli, Rose Pagani, Eminia Maffei, Matilda Baccala, Alma Dal Poggetto, Flsie Yenni. Messrs. F. Nichelini, John Picetti, James Maffei, Peter Perazzo, Fulton Dalporto, Newton Dal Poggetto, Oliver Maffei and Louie Maffei.

Ladies' and gents' clothing cleaned and pressed. We make them look good as new by our process of dry cleaning. Parrent, The Tailor.

Poppe's New Building

Work on R. A. Poppe's new office building on First-street East facing the plaza was commenced Monday. The architect is A. C. Lutgens of San Francisco and the contractor Frank Sullivan of Santa Rosa. The new building will be of Mission style of architecture with tiled roofing. It will be a one-story six-room office affair and will be an ornament to the town when completed. The cost of the building will be nearly $6,000 and it will be ready for occupancy about May 1st.

Hay Market This Week

Somers & Co. in their weekly bulletin dated the 23d inst., in discussing the condition of the hay market say:

"Receipts of hay during the past week amounted to 2175 tons, a trifle more than has been received during the few previous weeks, but nevertheless a small amount comparativly speaking. Local trade conditions are anything but satisfactory; the hay which is coming in is being placed fairly well, but there is not the active buying which we generally expect after the holiday season. Country hay trade continues fairly active and the prices which can be obtained for hay shipped to consuming points in the interior are far better than the prices which can be obtained locally.

The continued threatening weather with some little rain probably deters work to some extent and it is probable that with a period of fair weather which will permit of work going on, there will be more active trade in hay.

Alfalfa is quite scarce in the State and what few lots are advantageously available for shipment for consuming points, are readily being sold at satisfactory figures.

Although there is some evidence of green feed along the coast, yet the country needs a good rain in most sections of the State, especially in the South where feed of all kinds is scarce."

For the Hair

Are you so fortunate as to be well satisfied with your hair? Is it long enough, thick enough, rich enough? And your hair does not fall out? Well, well, that is good. But you may know of some not so fortunate. Then just tell them about Ayer's Hair Vigor. They will surely thank you after using it, if not before. Remember, it does not color the hair. Show the list of ingredients to your doctor. Let him decide their value. He knows.

Woman's Club

Last Friday was Social Day at the Woman's Club, Mrs. Stofen acting as hostess. The program, one of music, was in charge of Mrs. Bateman, assisted by Miss Stofen and Miss Helena Clewe. A number of songs and piano solos were given, making a delightful change in the year's programs.

Next Friday's meeting will be the last business meeting before the annual, which comes the first Friday in March.

A. F. Martel Goes to San Quentin For Five Years

A. F. Martel, who a number of years ago leased Buena Vista Castle and opened it up as an exclusive family summer resort, has been convicted and sentenced to serve five years in San Quentin prison for falsifying the books of the defunct Market Street Bank of San Francisco of which he was president. It was while sojourning here that Martel engaged in banking in the metropolis, and during the monetary panic of a few years ago his bank went to smash. Mr. Martel was a wide-awake business man and was engaged in many enterprises in this State when the crash came. He is more a victim of circumstances than a criminal.

The Tenderfoot Farmer

It was one of these experimental farmers, who put green spectacles on his cow and fed her shavings. His theory was that it didn't matter what the cow ate so long as she was fed. The questions of digestion and nourishment had not entered into his calculations.

It's only a "tenderfoot" farmer that would try such an experiment with a cow. But many a farmer feeds himself regardless of digestion and nutrition. He might almost as well eat shavings for all the good he gets out of his food. The result is that the stomach grows "weak" the action of the organs of digestion and nutrition are impaired and the man suffers the miseries of dyspepsia and the agonies of nervousness.

To strengthen the stomach, restore the activity of the organs of digestion and nutrition and brace up the nerves, use Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It is an unfailing remedy, and has the confidence of physicians as well as the praise of thousands healed by its use.

In the strictest sense "Golden Medical Discovery" is a temperance medicine. It contains neither intoxicants nor narcotics, and is as free from alcohol as from opium, cocaine and other dangerous drugs. All ingredients printed on its outside wrapper.

Don't let a dealer delude you for his own profit. There is no medicine for stomach, liver and blood "just as good" as "Golden Medical Discovery."

California For the Sportsman

California for the sportsman, the latest publication of the Southern Pacific Co., is pronounced by hunting and fishing experts to the most thorough booklet yet published on the fish and game of this great state. It is not an advertisement. It is a descriptive booklet of the best places in California to hunt and to fish. The expert data is furnished by Al M. Cumming, a true, practical and perhaps the best known sportsman in this state. It is the result of personal experience and observation extending over a period of more than thirty-five years. Part one is devoted to game fish, trout, striped bass, black bass, and other fresh water fish; and to the salt water fish that give the disciples of Issac Walton considerable trouble before they are landed.

Part two is devoted to the game birds of California. Under the caption of feathers, come descriptions of the wild pigeon, dove, grouse, quail, partridge, pheasant, wild turkey, sage hens, snipe and ducks. Their habits and habitations are described in detail. The open and closed seasons are carefully explained. California for the sportsman, tells how the birds fly, it tells the food each bird seeks and where it usually goes in search of this food.

Part three is given over to the furred animals. Those sportsmen who prefer to stalk their game and who would decorate their homes with large bear rugs and huge antlers will find this section most interesting. The open and closed season for all kinds of deer is described at great length. There is a goodly supply of bear in the Sierra Nevada and Coast Range mountains according to the booklet, and Cumming tells in his own peculiar style just where they are to be found and how they should be hunted. Considerable space is also devoted to the mountein lion, wildcat, puma, coyote, badger, porcupine, raccon, fox, antolope, mountein sheep and rabbit. Then it tells how to preserve your game after it has been bagged, now to ship it and how to reach these nimrodic paradises. The illustrations are profuse.
